The Chairman is, therefore, inviting the public to lodge objections, if any, to any of the nominated candidates. The objections should be based on very strong verifiable character or other considerations that would be inconsistent with their appointment to the Commission. The objections should be made in writing and lodged within a period of 7 business days after publication of the names of candidates.

A Sub-Committee of the Committee on Standing Rules and Orders (CSRO) will sit within 7 days of the closing date to consider the objections. The final list of candidates to appear before the Committee on Standing Rules and Orders will then be duly published immediately thereafter.

Furthermore, members of the public are also being invited to submit, within 7 days, of this notice, possible questions to be posed to the interviewees. A type-written submission, lodging an objection, stating reasons for the objection, addressed to the Clerk of Parliament in envelopes clearly marked with the name 'Zimbabwe Anti-Corruption Commission- Objections', can be posted, hand delivered or emailed to:-
